

THE INDUS CLUB

One BKC, Mumbai houses one of the country's most luxurious private members' business clubs. Christened 'The Indus Club', it is founded by Mr. Harish Thawani whose prior creations include Nimbus Communications and NEO Sports. Spanning 20,000 square feet in the bustling business district of the city, it's an 'invitation only' club for ultra-high net worth individuals. Tech and taste are of titanic importance in this space which is there to be experienced in abundance. Rekindled that goal to join the elite 1% of the world, have we?

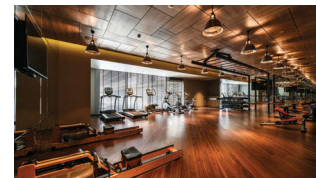

INDUS INSIDE

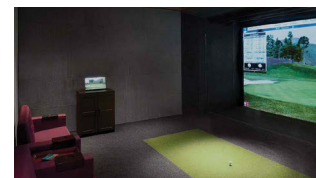

ATMOS IMPORTANCE

The 32-seater theatre is an admirable showcase of the club's adoption of advanced audio tech. In this case, a Dolby Atmos system. Channelling all that sound to your ears are high-end speakers from Danish brand Dali.

RUSSOUNDING SUCCESS

Iconic British brand Russound has been called upon for its multi-room custom setups. The system offers 24bit/192kHz audio via eight channels in eight different zones of the Club.

HOLE IN ONE

Meet not just any golf simulator, but one that's setup in Tiger Woods' home itself. A tower of computers housed in a military-grade casing crunch all the numbers for this state-of-the-art simulator. Different strokes for elite folks, yeah?
